

TEX, 101-HOUST, 4-

TEXAS
State

Harris (101)
County

HOUSTON
Town or Vicinity

45
28
18
HABSI

Structure Kellum-Noble House (Shelter House) (TEX-23)

Sam Houston Park, 2k2 Dallas Ave. Museum. Brick, 56'11" (five-bay front) x 64'9", two stories, hipped roof, L-
plan, encircling two-story gallery, brick piers below,
wooden posts and railing above, exterior stair only.
Interior partitions also of brick. Built 1847 by Nathaniel K. Kellum, who operated a brick kiln. In the 1850s Mrs. Zerviah M. Noble conducted a private school in the house. Acquired by the city with the surrounding grounds (over)

HABSI

HABSI Kitchen

Form 10-444 (2/62)

FW-7

FORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

in 1899, it became part of Sam Houston Park and was used as museum, caretaker's residence, and shelter house at various times. It was opened to visitors in 1956 after being restored by the Harris County Heritage Society. 4 sheets (1936, including site plan, plans, elevations, sections, details); 2 ext. photos (1936); 1 data page (1936). HABSI.

Card prepared June 1975.

---